

THE GIVER

1994

QUICKWRITES

Safety

(sayf-tee) - noun

Letting Us Choose

Jonas comes to the conclusion that letting people choose their own clothes, spouses, and even jobs would be dangerous. In what ways would it be safer (and even better) to have society choose things for us? What bad things would be fixed by having society choose for us? Is it more dangerous if we're allowed to make our own choices?